Italy to Announce Policy

Ministers Decide on Attitude

Regarding Soviet Russia

ROME, Dec. 20.—The session of council of ministers lasted three hours to day. According to the "Tribuna," the ministors approved a statement to be made by Signor Scioloia, Foreign Minister, in the Chamber on foreign policy.

Tide of the organization. "Persons who have sought recently to give currency to the statement that organized farmers favor government ownership are not farmers themselves," Mr. Atkeson's letter asserted. "Neither do they represent any considerable proportion of the men or women actually engaged in farming. In this belief, I am strengthened by the fact that the agricultural press, with few and inconspieuous exceptions, oppose government ownership of the railroads and any extension of government opposition to government ownership." ister, in the Chamber on foreign policy.

This consists of two parts. The first will, deal with Italy's foreign policy in general, setting forth the attitude Italy will take regarding the Russian Soviet and the other states which have arisen

General Weather Conditions
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—A disturbance of marked intensity was central to-night over New England, another over the Gulf of Mexico, a third over Alberta, Canada, and a fourth is approaching the North Pacific Ceast. The pressure is high over the Atlantic states and Western districts.

During the last twenty-four hours there were rains in the Gulf states, Georgia, Florida and on the North Pacific Coast, and local snows in the Middle Atlantic states. The weather was fair in other regions. Temperatures remain low in the Middle Atlantic and New England states and are moderate for this time of the year in other parts of the country.

The weather will be unsettled, with rains along the South Atlantic and east Gulf ceasts and mostly fair east of the Mississippi River during to-morrow and Monday. The temperature will rise to-morrow and Monday in the Middle Atlantic and New England states and te-morrow in the Ohio Valley and the lower lake region.
